Palestine Temple to be Host to New England Shriners

Mammoth Street Parade and Ceremonial of New England Temples

PALESTINE Temple of Providence is to play host to the Shrine Temples of New England on Friday and Saturday, October 8 and 9, when they will gather in that city with their colorful patrols and bands to participate in the organizing of the New England Shrine Council.

POTENTATE NORRIS G. ABBOTT, JR., OF PALESTINE TEMPLE

The organization meeting will take place on Friday evening and will be attended by the Potentates, Chief Rabbans, Past Potentates, Recorders, Imperial Representatives and Imperial Officers of the several New England Temples.

On Saturday morning, October 9, the city of Providence will look like the city of Mecca, when the uniformed organizations in their Arabic colors arrive from all sections of New England. At two o'clock there will be a mammoth street parade in which all Units are invited to participate, followed by the "Massing of Colors", with music by the massed bands of all the Temples.

At four o'clock all Nobles are invited to Crescent Park, where a class of candidates from all Temples will receive the first section of a ceremonial. From 5:30 to 7:30 a Rhode Island Shore Dinner will be served, which will be followed by the second section of the monster ceremonial at 7:45 P.M., in which the wrecking crews of all Temples will participate.

At 9:15 P.M., in the main hall, an elaborate floor show will be given under the direction of the Palestine committee, and in an adjoining hall a full entertainment of boxing with New England contenders will take place.

During the afternoon and evening, all amusements and concessions at the Park will be available with refreshments being served continuously.

Potentate Norris G. Abbott, Jr., of Palestine Temple, who is general chairman of the committee advises that the cost for the entire program to Shriners, will be only $1.25—sufficient to cover the cost of the dinner.

Procure your ticket NOW, at Shrine Headquarters, 97 Huntington Avenue, Boston, as no tickets will be sold after October 6. Price $1.25 each.

This will be the largest gathering of Shriners in New England. Make your plans now, to participate in this eventful occasion.

Come early and spend the entire day and evening with the Nobility of New England.

NEW BEDFORD SHRINE CLUB ANNUAL CLAM BAKE AND OUTING

ALL NOBLES are invited to attend the Annual Clambake and Outing sponsored by the Shrine Club of Southeastern Massachusetts, to be held Sunday, September 26, at "Tinkhamtown", Mattapoisett, Massachusetts.

Noble Doctor Birtwistle, the newly elected President of the Club, advises that committees are now at work with plans that will make this event one of the outstanding events in the history of the club.

In addition to the bake, which is the greatest inducement to attend, the officers of the club are making arrangements for a program of outdoor games and sports of all kinds, with suitable prizes for the winners of each event.

It is hoped by those in charge that the Worcester County Shrine Club will again attend in a body and with an even larger crowd than last year as well as the many members of Aleppo who have attended this annual event each year.

Reservations should be made early. Tickets, which are $1.25 each, may be procured by addressing Mr. Charles E. Davis, Jr., c/o Kirby Paint Co., Wall Street, New Bedford.

Don't miss this Clam Bake and Outing. The festivities start at 1:30 P.M. Come and enjoy a day of fun and fellowship with the Nobles of Southeastern Massachusetts. "Come rain or shine, for one good time."

For the benefit of the Nobles who have not attended, the committee will post direction signs from New Bedford to Mattapoisett, which is just outside the city.

SHRINE LUNCHEONS TO BE RESUMED

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1937

THE MONTHLY Shrine Luncheons of Aleppo Temple will be resumed on Tuesday, September 28, 1937.

These luncheons, which have proved so popular with the Nobility, will be held at the Boston City Club, Somerset Street, Boston, on the fourth Tuesday of each month, at 12:30 P.M.

Chief Rabban Charles T. Cahill, chairman of the luncheon committee, is now trying to contact a man who is at present holding the interest of the people of the entire country through his position in the Nation's Capitol, to be the speaker at the first luncheon of this season.

The management of the City Club have assured us of a menu that will please all who attend. A number of door prizes to be given out, have already been donated. The committee would be very pleased to have any Noble or friend donate prizes to this or future luncheons. Donations may be made by calling Shrine headquarters, KENmore 0678.

A NOBLE DEED

WE HAVE received from time to time many interesting stories from members who have been shown courtesies by other Nobles. One of the most interesting stories showing the Shrine spirit and what the Order means was revealed to us by Noble Daniel Grishaver, a real estate dealer in Cambridge.

Noble Grishaver recently had the occasion to make a quick trip to Mobile, Alabama, with his brother-in-law, Mr. Mark H. Livingstone, whose son was stricken ill while traveling in that city. Upon their arrival they found that the son had passed away and that the Roach Undertaking Parlors were in charge. Noble Grishaver immediately took charge of the details for the grief-stricken father, but when he came to make arrangements, he found that he was 1500 miles from home, had left in a hurry and was without funds. When he told the stranger, who is treasurer of the Undertaking Parlors, the predicament he was in, he was told that he could write a check for the entire amount, including the return railroad fares and hotel bills.

Noble Grishaver was told that his Shrine pin was evidence that he would back the check up.

The friend in need turned out to be Past Potentate Johnstone of Mobile, Ala.

Needless to say, Noble Grishaver is very grateful for the courtesy shown him by a brother Noble, when he was stranded 1500 miles from home.

We congratulate Mobile for having the type of Noble who could do such a noble deed.

COMMANDERY TAKES A SAIL

AMONG the eighteen members of the Gethsemane Commandery Drill Corps who braved the sun and sea last month on board Noble Goulston's fishing yacht "Comfort" out of Scituate Harbor were Noble Bill Mann, who didn't get a fish and didn't change his bait all day long; Noble Chester Cleveland, who didn't like to take a fish off the hook because he is so tender hearted he was afraid he would hurt the fish; George

Tracy, who caught the first cod and three more in record time, before he made a poor cast with the heavy sinker only to have the hook fly back and sink to the barb in his fishing finger; Noble Tom Wagner, who took the honors and the pool for the biggest fish; Noble Doc Veo, who blew onion fumes on the fish he caught, to still them while he unhooked one after another; Sam Nash, who sat in the same spot aft all day long and the fish seemed to like Sam's methods for he was the most persistent catcher in the bunch. Noble Soukikian sat up in a Scituate hotel all night in order to be on hand in time for sailing Sunday morning, and if he could have had his way the boat would have been covered with his oriental rugs instead of hot planks, and the biggest kick he got, was watching a trawler lay a net around a mackerel school. Frank Avantaggio won't believe yet that the cod he caught was one that was taken out of the basket and hooked on his line when he was sound asleep on the deck. But Noble Paul Sykes got more enjoyment out of the trip than anyone because he caught the only Golden Cod the crowd had ever seen. Noble Ray Ellis, the thin man, regaled us of the trout he caught in Newfound Lake, and the barrel of mackerel at Plum Island the week before, but you know Ray. Some of the boys wanted to dive off the boat for a swim to get rid of the sharks on board, but the Captain thought the sharks in the sea were even more dangerous and persuaded the boys to keep their shirts on.

The crowning feature was the fish chowder on the "Comfort" when all got back to shore. The day was voted a complete success and a start in reviving the Drill Corps Sociability for Gethsemane Commandery.

ANOTHER FISH STORY

NOBLE J. F. Allen of Dorchester writes us the following letter from the wilds of Maine, where he is spending his vacation.

"I was just reading in the July issue of the ALEPPO NEWS about a Noble who went fishing down to Woods Hole and caught 57 different varieties of fish, and four or five at the same time on the same hook. Of course that is a fish story. But I can tell you a few true fish stories, and furnish good witnesses, such as Nobles Pickering, Fred Keene and A. McInnes.

"We were on a fishing trip some years ago down at Nantucket. We caught eighteen blue fish, the smallest of which weighed 10¼ pounds and the largest 17½ pounds. I hooked one and had him almost up to the boat (which was sailing at a pretty good clip), when to my great surprise he made a jump and went into the air about fifteen feet. I gave him a sudden jerk and he landed in the boat and at the same time coughed up a pint bottle of Old Medford Rum that had never been opened. Some of our company doubted that it was rum. But we soon found out that it was the genuine stuff.

"This is a true story. I could tell you stories of fishing, both in salt and fresh water, that would amaze you. Even some of my own family would almost doubt my word. I have always made it a point to stick to the truth though, no matter what happened."

Editor's Note: This beats any of Lowell Thomas's fish stories. Let us hear some more of those stories, Noble Allen.

REUNION FOR NOBLE NISSEN

NOBLE Eric C. Nissen and Mrs. Nissen of West Roxbury, left August 21 for San Francisco, California, via the Panama Canal. Noble and Mrs. Nissen, who sailed aboard the S. S. California, are to attend a "Nissen family reunion", the first in twelve years. During his stay in California, Noble Nissen plans to attend a ceremonial of Al Malai-kah Temple of Los Angeles.

A farewell party was arranged for the couple at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, by Arthur E. Nissen, a son.

On their return Noble and Mrs. Nissen plan to spend some time with Eric E. Nissen, Junior, at Detroit, Michigan.

One of the outstanding features of this trip was the use of the public address system, by Mr. Edward Rowe Snow for the purpose of describing the points of interest along the shores and in Boston Harbor. Mr. Snow, who has written a 400 page book on the history and traditions of every island in Boston Harbor could be heard in every part of the boat through the seventeen loud speakers placed at strategic points aboard ship.

OVERLAND CIGARS PERFECTOS — 2 for 25c
GLEN GARRY BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY (86.3 proof)

BY NOBLE J. ARTHUR MCCOY,
Associate Editor.

THE Summer Outing, aboard the S. S. "Town of Hull", was an enjoyable affair and enabled me to pick up a little news of the members.

Starting with the most pleasant news—we learn that there is a new baby at the home of Lt. Fred Duncan. Beverlee Ann is bringing new thrills to papa and mama, to say nothing of Uncle Justin, who spends his evening playing with her. Congratulations to Fred and Mrs. Duncan and best wishes to little Beverlee.

Noble Gordon B. Chapman of the fifth platoon, is a First Lieutenant in the Reserve Corps, Motor Transport Division, and has just completed his annual tour of duty, making a motor convey trip with 50 cars through New Hampshire. Now he is spending the remainder of the season conducting speed boat excursions out of Beverly Harbor. He has a 250 H. P. boat and is quite busy.

Noble Alex Campbell of the fourth platoon had a painful accident, impaling his left arm on an iron fence. Alex fell six feet onto the fence and the iron spikes penetrated under the arm in two places. Doctors say it just avoided the big blood vessels, which might have proved fatal. After two weeks in bed, Alex is now getting around again, for which we are all very glad.

Lt. Roger Beckman, of the second platoon, had a rock fall on his left foot, smashing the end of his big toe. He was out of circulation for three weeks but appeared at the Outing, hobbling about with a bandaged foot.

Dr. Salerno of the Staff, has been touring Eastern Canada with his family during August, and declares that the beauties of the Saguenay River district can be enjoyed even better in an auto tour than by boat.

Lt. Ben James and Noble "Scottie" Duncan of the first platoon, will attend the National Legion Convention in New York, Sept. 18-23, and will then go to Bermuda for a short trip.

Wedding bells will ring for Noble Henry Allen of the third platoon, on Sept. 25. He will wed Miss Mary Wilmot at Enfield, N. H., and they will make their home at 155 Manet Ave., Quincy. Congratulations and best wishes.

Lt. Eddie Freeman is again able to return to business after his long hospitalization and he is deeply appreciative of the many kindnesses shown by the members. Eddie wishes me to transmit his thanks to this host of truly great friends whose messages and thoughtful attentions cheered him on the road to recovery.

Noble Harold Budreau, of the fourth platoon, has been advanced in the executive department of the Missouri and Pacific Railroad. We are delighted to learn that Harold's splendid ability and personality have been recognized in his promotion to General Passenger and Freight Agent, with jurisdiction over New England and the Maritime Provinces. Harold came to the Mo. Pac. R. R. from the Boston and Albany R. R. in 1922 and was advanced to District Manager in 1929. This railroad is one of the largest in the country and the only one with through service in Mexico. His offices will continue to be at 515-517 Old South Building, Boston. Congratulations, Harold, and may your meritorious work in this larger field be a step upward till you reach the top.

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATIONS

ILLUSTRIOUS Noble James H. Price, Imperial Recorder of the Imperial Council and Recorder of Acca Temple, Richmond, Virginia, is expected to be the next Governor of the State of Virginia. Noble Price received a majority of more than 150,000 votes in the Democratic primaries recently held in that State, with the nomination being tantamount to election.

NOBLE Dennie Philip Small and Mrs. Small observed the fifty-second anniversary of their wedding on July 29, 1937, at home with their family. Noble Small, who is a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies, Boston Commandery, K. T., and Aleppo Temple, is the third generation of masons. His son, Noble Leslie C. Small, is the fourth generation.

He is a member of the State and National Society of Sons of American Revolution. Mrs. Small is a member of many women's clubs including The Tea Party Chapter.

HAVE you made a note of the coming events of Aleppo Temple?

OUR OLD TIMERS

WE HAVE received several replies to our request for letters from our "Old Timers". The following one is of particular interest, having come from Monrovia, California.

"Harvey B. Leggee, Editor, ALEPPO MONTHLY NEWS, Boston, Massachusetts.

"Dear Noble:

"I have just received the ALEPPO MONTHLY NEWS for August, which as usual I read very carefully, and it gives me a great deal of pleasure.

"On June 23 I wrote Noble Morrison in regard to Noble Alex C. Burke who had card No. 3453 and now I read that Noble J. E. Kenerson has card No. 1586. As my card says "MA93L, and in an old list of members it was No. 2872, will you kindly advise me when I joined Aleppo Temple?

"With best regards to Recorder Morrison, I am,

"Yours in the Faith,
"NOBLE FREDERICK L. WALKER."

Editor's Note:

The number on Noble Walker's card, MA93L, is the type of number that has been used for the past ten years in Aleppo Temple. The old numbers were used in the Recorder's office on his ledger book and were necessary to distinguish members, as it was impossible to keep adding members on the books and keep them alphabetical. Ten years ago the Recorder and Assistant Recorder introduced a card ledger system, which is alphabetical. Therefore when a new mailing plate was made or a member changed his address the old numbers being obsolete and not giving any trace as to the year the Noble was initiated, the new number was used as in Noble Walker's case. His number MA93L means that he joined Aleppo in May, 1893, and is a Life Member.

"Editor ALEPPO NEWS,

"Dear Sir:

"In the ALEPPO MONTHLY NEWS, I noticed the numbers of some of the 'Old Timers'.

"I hold card No. 409. I received my initiation in Old Music Hall in 1898 and have missed only one ceremonial since that date.

"I was on the Aleppo Patrol for seventeen years until I was appointed Alchemist. I am still going strong.

"Fraternally yours,
"NOBLE ELMER F. BUTLER."

Another one of our "Old Timers", Noble Edward K. "Ken" Thayer of Brookline took time out to advise us that he has been a member of Aleppo for 49 years, having joined January 19, 1888. His number is 2610.

Noble Charles F. Kendall of Methuen sent us a postal card on which he says, "Apropos long term members. My number is 1551."

Noble Kendall joined Aleppo Temple May 30, 1894.

"Dear Noble Leggee:

"Per request in the August issue of the ALEPPO NEWS, I am pleased to report that I joined Aleppo Temple, May 23, 1890, and my card number is 2801.

"I well remember the ceremonial in Odd Fellows Hall, Berkeley Street, when Charlie Porter and Frank Richardson were the acrobats. I was born January 11, 1849, and hope to celebrate the 89th anniversary of my birth in 1938. We observed our 64th wedding anniversary, November 24, 1936. My sons are members of the Blue Lodge in Winthrop and one of them is a member of Almas Temple in Washington, D. C.

"I was raised in St. Croix Lodge, December 2, 1873. In the past 64 years I have lived in California, Maine, Florida and Massachusetts, and call Massachusetts the most satisfactory to reside in.

"Fraternally yours,
"HORACE WAITE."

BOWLING NEWS

By VAIL K. HAAK, Associate Editor

WITH the thermometer hovering between 90 and 100 degrees, far be it from me to dwell very long on bowling. The very thought of it brings forth perspiration.

On the other hand in one short month we of the bowling league return to the alleys to battle through the winter. We still want some more bowlers, so send in your name and address, that we may notify you when we expect to start the coming bowling season.

I sincerely hope that all the members of the league are enjoying their summer and by all means don't take any unnecessary chances with your arms as you will need them in the near future.

More pep talks to come in the next editions.

EDITOR'S NOTE: I understand that the associate editor who writes this column came off second best in a 3-legged race as part of the activities of an outing held under the auspices of The Boston Globe Bowling League of which he is President. I would suggest that he stick to two legs and possibly he might win.

SOUTH SHORE NEWS

By NOBLE GEORGE A. RHODES

Associate Editor

THE pilgrimage to the Masonic Home by lodges of the 26th Quincy, and 27th Plymouth districts was a grand ending to a busy season for the Masonic lodges, Royal Arch chapters, Templars and Grotto prophets, many of whom are Nobles of Aleppo Temple.

There were about 1,000 in attendance, one of the largest pilgrimages to the home. Superintendent R. M. Handy is the ideal host. He was here, there and yonder welcoming the visitors and answering questions. Secretary Maybie also assisted by answering many queries. It was an ideal day. Arriving about noon the lunch baskets were explored immediately and then the throng wandered through the buildings and over the grounds. During the afternoon a group from the Malden district gave an entertainment in the theatre.

Rt. Wor. Everett E. Weatherbee of the 26th and Rt. Wor. Charles B. Worrick of the 27th, were the promoters of the trip. Its success is due to their efforts. All the masters of the districts were present excepting Noble J. Frederick Price of Orphans Hope Lodge of East Weymouth who sent his son G. Winfield Price, the Senior Warden. The Quincy Patriot Ledger ran a page of pictures taken at the home on July 16.

The Blue Lodges, Chapters and Templars have gone fast asleep for the two summer months. Cases of distress and where death calls a brother are attended to promptly by the officers. The Grotto patrol is getting set for some strenuous work in the early fall under the direction of Captain Arthur N. Hale.

The Eastern Star chapters, Amaranth courts and White Shrine, omit the business sessions in the summer but continue the group system of parties and outings with one every Saturday and Sunday as well as during the week. Members of the Blue Lodges and other bodies are faithful attendants. Must be the home cooked suppers?
